

Work Environment Policy

Microprecision work to create a physical, psychological and social sound and developing worksite for the coworkers. In our organization we deprecate from all types of offensive discrimination. We work actively with systematic occupational health and safety management through risk analyzes safety rounds, worksite investigation and participation of coworkers. Our work environment shall fulfill the requirements of the government and other external parties.

2019-12-11

Rade Paunovic / MD